

Hello,

Your farm or food processing business can be listed for free in the Central Kootenay Farm & Food Directory.

2023 will be the sixth year the Central Kootenay Food Policy Council publishes this local food guide online and in print format. The online version is always live, so your listing will update once you've updated it. The print version will be published in May. 3,500 copies will be distributed to tourist info centres, libraries, natural foods grocery stores and more places throughout the Central Kootenay.

Visit <https://centralkootenayfood.ca/> to create a listing. Register in the top right corner. If you need help setting up an account, please see the PDF instruction guide https://centralkootenayfood.ca/wp-content/uploads/2019/03/DirectoryEntryGuide_feb19_sm.pdf.

Note that entries must be updated by February 21st, 2023.

If you have questions or feedback, please email ed@ckfoodpolicy.ca. Thanks!
